Things to Do in the Orlando Area

Universal Studios

Discovery Cove, an all-inclusive resort-like water park that features dolphin interactions, swimming with tropical fish, hand-feeding parrots and toucans, and rainforest river snorkeling.

If you want to keep your mind stimulated during your studies, the area offers a host of art and science museums, including the Orlando Museum of Art, the Orlando Science Center, the Kennedy Space Center (in nearby Orsino), and Ripley's Believe It or Not! Odditorium. For a respite from your rigorous CCIE training, take a relaxing one-hour Scenic Boat Tour and observe the flora and fauna of the region, stroll through the botanical oasis at Harry P. Leu Gardens or along the walking trails at Bill Frederick Park at Turkey Lake, or play a round of golf at one of Orlando's many courses.

If you have extra time in your schedule, the area offers great opportunities for road trips. Daytona Beach is not just a place for race fans and spring break revelers; you'll also find excellent golf, fishing, boardwalks, shopping, and a renovated beachfront village. At Homosassa Springs State Park, you can see manatees in their natural habitat all year round, as well as black bears, bobcats, white-tailed deer, alligators, crocodiles, and river otters. For a classic Florida beach experience without the big crowds, spend a day or two at Cocoa Beach, just a little over an hour's drive from Orlando. For the most unique Florida experience, schedule some time for a visit to Florida's famous Everglades!

This is just a sampling of the options that await when you arrive in Orlando for your CCIE Bootcamp training with INE! Sign up today!

When you visit Florida for your CCIE Bootcamp, give yourself some extra time to explore the abundance of theme park entertainment options, or perhaps experience some of the area's lesser-known attractions.

A huge variety of theme park venues (in fact, more theme parks than anywhere else in the world) are less than 20 miles from your CCIE training center. Walt Disney World alone offers six parks, including Magic Kingdom, Epcot, Disney's Hollywood Studios, and Typhoon Lagoon. SeaWorld Orlando, famous for its numerous zoological displays and marine animal attractions, also features an amusement park with roller coasters and a water park. Universal Orlando is another enormous park offering numerous attractions and rides, in addition to its legendary behind-the-scenes movie studio tour. For a twist on the typical amusement park, visit
